LEADERS IN TRAINING

A College and Career Development Program

CLASSES:

Along with the Rahway City Council, it is my pleasure to introduce Leaders in Training, an innovative youth development program designed to equip future leaders in our community with the knowledge and skills they need to excel in today's world.

Presented in partnership with Supreme Wise Consulting, the program features weekly sessions at the Rahway Recreation Center, each focused on a different topic. As detailed in this brochure, the sessions cover a wide range of topics, each with practical value for our young leaders.

All Rahway residents aged 14-18 are eligible to participate in the program. There is no charge, and participants can attend one, some, or all of the sessions. To register for one or more sessions, please visit <https://register.communitypass.net/rahway> or, to check out the program, just drop in.

An investment in our youth is an investment in the future of our City and, as Mayor, I am proud to be able to offer Leaders in Training to our young residents.

— Mayor Raymond A. Giacobbe
